

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE EASTERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA

ERIC RYAN HAYDE,

Plaintiff,

v.

TAMARA TABER, et al.,

Defendants.

No. 2:23-cv-1131 AC P

ORDER

Plaintiff has filed a motion for a thirty-day extension of time to complete discovery. ECF No. 33. In addition to various difficulties plaintiff has faced due to his recent release from prison,¹ he asserts that he is still waiting for documents he requested from the prison and for supplemental discovery responses from defendant. Id. To the extent plaintiff appears to seek additional time to serve additional discovery requests, the time for doing so has long since passed and he has not established grounds for re-opening that deadline. However, to the extent plaintiff appears to assert that he is waiting on documents responsive to defendant's requests and defendant's responses to his requests, the motion will be granted. Because these deadlines have already been extended twice (ECF Nos. 24, 31), no further extensions will be granted absent a

¹ One of the difficulties cited by plaintiff is that he no longer has access to LexisNexis for legal research. ECF No. 33 at 6. Plaintiff is advised that many counties operate public law libraries, which he should be able to locate through a basic internet search.

1 showing of extraordinary cause. The court will also extend the dispositive motions deadline
2 accordingly.

3 Accordingly, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that:

4 1. Plaintiff's motion for an extension of time (ECF No. 33) is GRANTED to the extent
5 that plaintiff shall have until July 7, 2024, to serve any responses to defendant's discovery
6 requests and the parties shall have until July 29, 2024, to file any necessary motions to compel.
7 The motion is otherwise DENIED.

8 2. The deadline for filing dispositive motions is extended to September 13, 2024.
